Objective

To generate a total return in excess of the benchmark over a full market cycle.

Benchmark

Russell 1000® Value Index

Method

To invest in equity securities of companies that appear to be positioned to produce surprisingly stronger operating results relative to Wall Street consensus.

Permissible Investments

The Portfolio may invest in:

1. Common stock, American Depositary Receipts ("ADRs"), Real Estate Investment Trusts ("REITs") and other securities that are traded on a recognized U.S. exchange, through NASDAQ, or on the U.S. over-the-counter markets;
2. Preferred stock and securities convertible into common stock;
3. Short-term, cash equivalent investments, including:
 - a. Obligations of, guaranteed by or insured by the U.S. Government, its agencies or instrumentalities;
 - b. Obligations of U.S. banks or savings associations (including certificates of deposit and bankers' acceptances) which are fully insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; and

- c. Commercial paper or variable amount master notes issued by companies that, at the time of purchase, have an issue of outstanding debt securities rated as "investment grade" by Standard & Poor's Ratings Group ("S&P") (BBB- or better), Moody's Investor Services Inc. ("Moody's") (Baa3 or better) or Fitch Ratings Service ("Fitch") (BBB- or better) or commercial paper rated A-1 by S&P, P-1 by Moody's or F1 by Fitch, with split-rated securities considered to have the middle credit rating;
4. Shares of a registered investment company that is not sponsored by the Trustee or any affiliate of the Trustee and that has an investment objective consistent with the overall investment objectives of the Portfolio. In the event the Trustee purchases shares of a registered investment company sponsored by the Adviser or an affiliate of the Adviser, the Trustee will reimburse the Portfolio in an amount equal to the investment advisory fee allocatable to the interest of the Portfolio in the registered investment company;

5. An interest in a Portfolio established by the Trustee under the "Collective Investment Trust for Employee Benefit Plans," none of which shall have an investment advisory or management fee; and
6. An interest in a collective investment fund maintained by a bank or trust company other than the Trustee and which has an investment objective consistent with the overall investment objectives of the Portfolio.
5. The Portfolio's investments may not exceed 5% of the issuer's total market capitalization.
6. The Portfolio may not make short sales or maintain a short position.
7. The Portfolio may not purchase any security subject to a trading restriction.
8. The Portfolio may not invest in or use synthetic securities or derivatives of any kind.

A portion of the Portfolio may remain uninvested pending settlement of securities trades.

Investment Restrictions

1. No more than 5%, at the time of last purchase, of the Portfolio's value may be invested in the securities of any one issuer, except for the debt securities of the U.S. Government, its agencies or instrumentalities, or shares of a registered investment company or an interest in a collective investment fund, which may be purchased without limit. The Portfolio shall sell securities of any issuer (except for debt securities of the U.S. Government, its agencies or instrumentalities, or shares of a registered investment company or an interest in a collective investment fund) that exceed 10% of the value of the Portfolio's assets within 30 days after the month in which the position first exceeds 10%.
2. Preferred and convertible securities as a class, at time of last purchase, may not exceed 20% of the value of the Portfolio.
3. No more than 10%, at time of last purchase, of the Portfolio's value may be invested in dollar-denominated securities of foreign issuers.
4. No non-dollar denominated securities can be purchased.
9. The Portfolio may not invest in Wilmington Trust Corporation or M&T Bank Corporation securities.
10. The Portfolio may not hold issues received as a result of corporate actions which do not meet the permissible investment criteria or are in violation of an investment restriction. Such issues must be sold within 30 days after the end of the month in which they were received.
